

CHAPEL HILL HIGH SCHOOL

ANNOUNCEMENTS

10/31/2023

- One Act Play: Let's give special recognition to the One Act play cast as they have finished the competition with excellent and above average scores. Zizi Andrews and Josi { Dor-bah-dzi} were awarded the All star and Cast for their performances. Next year, we aim higher and plan to place first! Go Panthers!
- Debate Team: Our speech and debate team participated in the second Georgia Speech Scrimmage hosted by The Marist School.
 - Lindsey Mercer placed 1st for Radio Broadcasting. Broadcasting is a public address event in which a student prepares, in advance, a news script using up to date material. Students must include an introduction, a sign off and a brief original commercial. Lindsey's broadcast featured a Halloween/spook theme.
 - A special mention to Kamau Edmondson who made it to the preliminary round of finals for Broadcasting.
 - Claire Craton placed 4th for Original Oratory. Oratory is a persuasive speech that the student writes arising from her/his personal convictions or a source of concern regarding their community, beliefs and/or the larger world. Claire's speech argued that school systems should provide licensed psychological services to students. Additionally, Claire has received 1 of 2 bids to qualify for the Tournament of Champions.
 - Congratulations to Lindsey, Claire, and Kamau!
- DECA: All DECA members competing in the Region competition, please plan to attend a MANDATORY MEETING on November 8th at 7:40 am or 3:15pm! You MUST attend one of these meetings. Also, all permission forms and payment for Region are required to be turned in no later than tomorrow afternoon to stay on the competition team. Please see Ms. Godfrey in E219 for more information.
